Cornerstone Assembly Profile:

Cornerstone Assembly is a PAOC church located in Bible Hill (Truro), Nova Scotia. Truro is a large conglomerate town central to the Maritimes and one hour from the city of Halifax, Nova Scotia's capital.

The church was planted in 1991 with 20 people gathering for home meetings, and has since grown to become an active, multi-generational community with weekly Sunday attendance ranging from 50-80.

Cornerstone went through district-led revitalization in 2016 and has become an outreach oriented church with regular community events every year.

Cornerstone has an active, volunteer-led, midweek youth ministry with 10-15 students and Sunday morning kids ministry with 10-15 children. Throughout the week, seniors meet for prayer, families gather together for small groups, and people share life together through homes and family events around Truro.
